The information presented in Regional Matters could not have been compiled without the valuable assistance, advice and feedback of more than 150 individuals representing the following organisations:

- | Each of the 10 Victorian Government departments: Premier and Cabinet; Education and Training; Innovation, Industry and Regional Development; Infrastructure; Primary Industries; Sustainability & Environment; Human Services; Treasury and Finance; Victorian Communities; and Justice.
- | Victorian Statutory Authorities such as: Regional Development Victoria; Food Victoria; VicRoads; Victorian Taxi Directorate; Multimedia Victoria; Fisheries Victoria; Geoscience Victoria; Heritage Victoria; Sustainability Victoria; Aboriginal Affairs Victoria; Southern Rural Water; State Emergency Service; Victoria Police; and CFA.
- | Australian Government agencies including: Bureau of Transport & Regional Economics; Bureau of Rural Sciences; CSIRO; National Climate Centre; National Greenhouse Office; Department of Environment & Heritage; Centrelink; Department of Family & Community Services; National Centre for Coronial Information; and National Centre for Vocational Research.
- | Council officers from: Macedon Ranges; Mansfield; Greater Shepparton; Warrnambool; Ganawarra; Bass Coast; Warrnambool; and Surf Coast.
- | Private companies including: Red³ Consultancy; Workabout Australia; and Prom Country Bushfoods.
- | Non-government organisations such as: Greenfleet; ICLEI Cities for Climate Protection; and Trust for Nature.
- | Peak bodies and community organisations including: Victorian Water Industry Association; General Practice Divisions of Victoria; Victorian Golf Association; Southern Bushfood Association; and Country Women's Association.

The map on ocean swims used information provided by local organisations including: Surf Life Saving Clubs of Warrnambool, Point Lonsdale, Anglesea, Point Leo, Hampton and Dromana; Point Gellibrand Rotary Club; Boroughcotas Swimming Club; and individuals involved in organising the Quinn Swim, Danger 1000 Swim, Westnet Internet Bloody Big Swim, and the Geelong Open Water Classic. The map on community newsletters was prepared using information provided by local Government officers across Victoria.

Information and advice was also obtained from Ian Nuberg at Adelaide University and Peter Houston at the South Australian Department of Primary Industries & Resources.
