

SUBMISSION HEADINGS

Submissions for the first stage of the Land and Biodiversity White Paper discussion paper Land and Biodiversity at a Time of Climate Change must include a name and address and will be published on the Department of Sustainability and Environment's website. If you would like your submission to remain confidential, please provide a separate written request.

Date: 20-6-07
Name and address (or individual):
Main area or issues of interest:

What are your major concerns about the health of the natural environment/biodiversity - please be as specific as you can:

i) In your area: EXTENSION OF
Q VARIETY

ii) Across the state:

WATER

What are the major barriers to addressing these issues?

i) In your area: D SURE

ii) Across the state:

What are some of the solutions?

What other issues would you like to see the White Paper address?

NO Q VARIETY IS

Please note

BOMT V P AREAS
The Victorian Government will consider all submissions as part of the development of an initial Green Paper, which is due for release early next

Land and Biodiversity at a Time of Climate Change

(due in this Friday)

Post to DSE. P.O. Box 500, East
Melbourne 3002